

Kaitlyn Bistline is currently in her third year as 5th grade English and Social Studies teacher in Lancaster, PA. She is very involved with different programs at her school and supporting her students.

She graduated from Millersville University in 2019 with a Bachelor's degree in Mid-Level Education with a concentration in Social Studies. During her undergraduate career, Kaitlyn served as the student trustee representative for three years on the Council of Trustees at Millersville.

Kaitlyn will graduate from The University of Alabama with her Master's degree in Instructional Technology in 2023. She is a part of The National Society of Academic Excellence and Omega Nu Lambda National Honor Society. While being a student at UA, Kaitlyn was accepted into the Gandhi-King Scholarly Exchange program. While learning about Gandhi and King, she will travel to Alabama and India to learn more information about both men and their impact on the world.

In her spare time, Kaitlyn loves supporting her students at sporting events, concerts, and recitals. She also loves going on adventures with her dog, spending time with her family, attending concerts, and serving as a youth leader in the local community.
