

Christine Thompson

Christine Thompson is a recent graduate from the University of Alabama with a B.A. in political science and minors in international relations and theatre. During her undergraduate career, Christine became a nationally ranked competitive speaker and attended Alabama with a full-tuition speech and debate scholarship. Previously, Christine worked in the House of Representatives, the New York State Legislature, and the UA Political Science Department as a research assistant. This summer, Christine studied abroad in Belgium thanks to a Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship and worked as a library assistant at The University of Alabama Law School. In her free time, Christine plays violin, practices her French, and takes on new adventures with her dog, Oreo.
